NATIONAL SCRAPBOOK DAY

Another celebration in store: keep watching for details on National Scrapbook Day! Mark your calendars for May 1, 2010.

REFLECTIONS OF THE OLYMPICS

I am not sure about you? However, for me, the Olympics were tremendous! Truly, I am going through withdrawal. I was glued to the television every night I came home to see who won what and where we placed...I say it like I was an athlete! I think they, the athletes and the Olympics, mesmerized us; made us unite; made us proud and wow, what a goal!

Unfortunately, I was not fortunate enough to attend the events, but I do want to somehow pay homage to them. What a great idea, to print some journal/blog articles, print some photos, clip some newspapers and put together a page or a mini-album of just what these games did for us as a people and nation. It would be something great to look back on and reflect for years to come.
